

Join a young company active in Luxembourg and neighboring countries.
We help our customers put security at the core of their digital transformation.
Although our field is profoundly digital, we put people at the center of our business.

Your profile

Having a first experience in Cybersecurity, that you want to develop.

Your qualities and skills:

- Knowledge with Information Security frameworks, standards, principles and controls.
- Willing to reinforce and develop your experience as PM assistant in Cybersecurity.
- Ability to organize and prioritize workload, take ownership of responsibilities.
- Experienced Team Player.
- Customer oriented.
- Proficient in English.
- French is mandatory.

Additional advantages would be:

- Curiosity, dedication and humor are welcome assets.

A socially committed company, valuing its staff and its well-being
Highly professional and experienced colleagues
Interesting and challenging projects
A unique opportunity to develop and grow in the area of IT security
A competitive salary and a package corresponding to Send your application to carriere@adronh.com